

WHITE BATS - PRESSKIT 2019

White Bats return to the stages this year 2019 after a break. They have returned with strength and a consolidated formation, their characteristic and personal sound, adding new elements, their spectacular and devastating live performance that leaves no one indifferent, more attitude and freshness than ever. Víctor Ferrero (drums and percussion), Jake Feijóo (guitar and synthesizers) and Álvaro Ibáñez (vocals) are in top shape. This summer 2019 they are presenting their WB-3 Tour 2019, which will pass through cities such as Madrid, Lugo, Ourense or Oviedo, among other Spanish cities.

The emergence of White Bats (Madrid, 2014) in the indie scene provoked effusive reactions instantly after the publication of his impeccable first EP "White Bats".

They build magnificent themes, designing a tense and expansive sound, updating in the dark an attitude full of style.

In September 2015 they signed for Subterfuge Records (one of the major indie labels in Spain), the label under which their second EP was published in January 2016, entitled "Complex Echoes". Their single 'Daylight, Sunset' has already reached more than 250,000 listens on Spotify, being heard in the UK, USA, Mexico and Spain, among other countries.

White Bats have passed through the most important venues in the capital of Spain: Ochoymedio Club (Sala But), La Riviera, Joy Eslava, El Sol, El Sótano or Siroco among others. They have also visited Barcelona

(Apollo), Valencia and many other Spanish cities.

They have accompanied artists such as Neuman, Pollock or Cycle on stage. In 2016 they performed on Gay Pride in Plaza de España in Madrid, and at festivals such as Tomavistas, Festival do Norte, Loro Facu, VdeValarés, etc.

In February 2016, they presented their second EP 'Complex Echoes' at El Sótano venue in Madrid, where the 'Sold Out' sign was hung days before.

In 2016 and 2017 they played at several festivals in Spain too.

Since their formation in 2014, they have performed more than 50 gigs in front of thousand of people.

After a period of inactivity, White Bats are in full shape and return to the stages this year 2019 with a reformed formation, many future plans and some brand new music.
